Our mission is to amplify the voices of the society in advocating for the realization of your rights. As we celebrate this year's Human Rights Day, we invite you to share your experiences in the housing sector.

Send in your short story (maximum 300 words) or photos that depict the justices/injustices that you have faced in the housing sector. We will share your stories on our website and social media pages.

Send in your stories to esrc@hakijamii.com with the tittle "My Story".
