

With the LAPSSET project passing through Isiolo county, we had discussions with some of the Community Based Organizations in the county on both the positive and negative effects of the project. It was an eye opening forum with many individuals expressing both their joys and fears on the matter.

Mr. Ibrahim Shabo from Pastoral Women for Health and Education (PWHE) together with some residents explained to us their fears of the project leading to the demolition of one of Isiolo's major grave sites.

Here is a short clip of his thoughts of the whole process.
